I have rights to withdraw at any given time but has no rights to depart First President Mark Falso after marriage. Once married, stay married however, if desired to depart, I will understand and lose all my rights to sue for equality of the property and assets. It is the Beliefs of First President Mark Falso and Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield that when a bride leaves the husband, the bride loses rights unless the husband is abusive. The said property meaning the land belongs to Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield. I will understand those lands, house, materials belongs to Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield.

I will understand when chosen to be the bride and Queen of Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield, all laws and regulations are to be observed and focused on God as I serve my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to be good example to others. This means total submission to future husband and leader First President Mark Falso.

I will understand I must fill out the application to a T, in another words, one hundred percent plus all of the references and all of the submissions of the essay and photographs and DVDs about me to First President Mark be qualified. I understand any omissions are grounds for disqualification and or delay to be chosen.

I will understand if I decide to depart and divorce and we have children, I will lose my rights to see the children because of the said contract here that when I depart First President Mark Falso meaning I depart the whole family including children as grounds as divorcing the entire family, not spouse. I will understand if I leave, I lose my rights to see my children until they are twenty-five years of age with supervision with staff from Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield only to be seen on the grounds of Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield.

I will understand that if I am not first chosen but will be a sister wife, I will understand the role will be princess for life and live together. The rules apply the same. This I will understand I must respect my suitor who will be my husband, First President Mark Falso when he choose another person to lay with.

I will understand if there are no sister wives at the moment, I will be humble to be the one and only bride I will please my future husband, First President Mark Falso.

I will submit completely no matter when First President Mark Falso is in good mood and I totally accept him to please him. I will also please him when I am in good mood and will do even I am in bad mood to please him. Any actions of mine to reject favors, I will be banished for one or more months of no activities plus banishment to prison and must write a public apology before the citizens of Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and the Shield.

I will submit and obey First President Mark Falso when he needs me to attend functions, meetings, trade shows, activities, church, missions, camping, and diplomatic relations with other countries.

If I am hearing, I must learn American Sign Language and practice daily and talk with the Deaf so I can be well skilled. If I am already skilled, I will talk in sign language and I will get to talk with First President Mark in American Sign Language. And to interpret for him.

I will denounce my own religion if I am not a Born-Again Christian and will accept Jesus as my Lord and Savior. If I am Born-Again Christian, I will follow First President Mark in church, Christian fellowships, meetings, and retreats as well as missions and visit churches to evangelize the Truth to the lost souls.

I accept that I am anti-abortion, anti-homosexuals, anti-muslim, anti-cults, anti-liberals, anti-communism, anti-fascism, and anti-socialism. Anything I say I support one of those ills, I will lose my marriage completely and lose children, home, and everything and I will understand I spend the rest of my life in prison along with required attending classes to understand why those things are wrong or even worse, put to death.

I understand Theocratic Republic State of the Sword and Shield is a stalwart Christian nation with firm stand on God. No liberalism, no multi-parties of variations, and no anti-Christian sentiments are found on the said country by law.

I will denounce my liberalism, muslim, communism, and socialism as well as fascism.

I understand if I do not agree with this contract, I voided my chance to be bridal candidate.

I understand this is a true legal paper. And I will not call up any mental institution for the First President Mark Falso. If I do, I will be sued by him and must surrender my entire assets, estate, and so forth.
